Harding Denounces One Man Government-Demo Extravagance and Promises Budget for Administration to Check Waste

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 28 .-Speaking to a tumultuous crowd which packed the Wheeling auditorium while thousands more battled in the streets for admission, Senator Harding laid down here tonight a policy of government economy and strict business administration. From the time of his arrival here in the early afternoon the Republican nominee was besieged by howling throngs and during the auditorium address his words again and again awakened avalanches of applause. So dense and tumultuous was the crowd along the line from the senator's hotel to the auditorium that both his car and that which carried Mrs. Harding were lost for a time in traffic jams.

Mrs. Harding reached the hall first . Harding reached the hall first and was given an ovation as she was pushed through crowded aisles up to the platform.

When the nominee arrived, the crowd rose and cheered for more than a minute. Previously Senator Harding had a short talk, denouncing one-man government before a crowd of many thousands who flocked the streets about the hotel, and earlier in the day he had spoken to five crowds that gathered around his private car as it came across to West Virginia.

Prefers Front Porch

udience why he had preferred the front porch campaign. "It wasn't because I didn't desire to come to you and preach the gospel of nominee for president. But I choose to speak from the front porch over at Marion for the very reason that I have encountered in Wheeling today, I didn't like to disappoint anyone. CHICAGO. Sept. 28-Mr. Comiskey tonight made the following statement to the Associated Press: "The consideration which the grand jury gave to this case should be greatly appreciated by the general public. The Hon. Charles A. McDonald, chief justice, and the foreman of the grand jury, Harry Brigham, and his associates who so diligently strived to save and make America's great game the clean sport which it is, are to be commended in no uncertain terms by all sport followers, in spite of what happened today. And, thank God, it did happen. Forty-four years of baseball endeavor have convinced me more than ever that it is a wonderful game and a game worth keep-

CICOTTE AND JACKSON CONFESS GAMBLERS "FIXED" WORLD SERIES WITH CHICAGO PLAYERS FOR SUMS RANGING FROM $5,000 TO $10,000--PLAYERS DOUBLE-CROSSED

(Republican Associated Press Leased Wire)

CHICAGO, Sept. 28—Indictments were voted against eight baseball stars today and confessions obtained from two of them, when the Old Roman, Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the oft-time champion Chicago White Sox smashed his pennant chasing machine to clean up baseball. The confessions told how the Sox threw last year's world's championship to Cincinnati for money paid by gamblers. Seven Sox regulars and one former player had true bills voted against them by the Cook county grand jury and the seven were immediately suspended by Mr. Comiskey. With his team only half a game behind the league leading Cleveland Indians, the White Sox owner served notice on his seven stars that if they were found guilty, he would drive them out of organized baseball for the rest of their lives.

Officials of Chief Justice McDonald's court desiring has been named as a ringleader in the baseball gambling scandal, said here to give the national game the benefit of publicity in its tonight that he had retained a lawyer purging, lifted the curtain on the grand jury proceedings to take care of his interests and that sufficiently to show a great hitter, Joe Jackson, declaring that he deliberately just tapped the ball, a picture of one of the world's most famous pitchers, Cicotte, in tears, and me for passing the $100,000 to the glimpses of alleged bribes of $5,000 or $10,000 discovered white sox is a lie. The rush of players to bare their ording to court attaches, that he took part in the affair started today when Cicotte appeared at criminal court building and asked permission to testify. Cicotte wept, court attaches said, and exclaimed in anguish his sorrow for his two small children as he told how he did his utmost to lose rather than win the 1919 world series, after he had "found" $10,000 beneath his bedroom pillow where it had been placed by professional gamblers. He said he lobbed the ball to the plate so slowly "you could read the trade mark on it" in the first game at Cincinnati, when he was taken out of the box after three and two-thirds innings had been played.
